

Airline Pilot Training
FLIGHT INSTRUCTOR COURSE

FI (A) Course for Candidates Flight Instructors

1. Introduction of the course

The Flight Instructor Course is designed to provide the necessary skills in order for the prospective Instructor to achieve the required competence.

It applies to a theoretical and practical program. Practical elements include the development of specific instructor skills, particularly in the area of teaching and assessing threat and error management and CRM.

Pre - entry Requirements

Prerequisites for the registration of those interested and wish to study at the Approved Training Organization FAS PILOT ACADEMY are:

- ▶ To have a valid PPL or CPL license
- ▶ To be holders of EASA Medical Certificate Class 1
- ▶ To hold an EASA Language Proficiency Level 4 (at least)
- ▶ To have completed at least 30 hours on SEP airplane of which at least 5 hours within the last 6 months
- ▶ To have completed 10 hours IFR at least 5 hours on FNPT II
- ▶ To have completed 20 hours of VFR cross-country flight as PIC, including 300nm

2. The FI (A) Course training package includes:

- ▶ All registration procedures in the organization
- ▶ FI (A) training Manual
- ▶ 100 hours of Theoretical Knowledge Instruction
- ▶ 25 hours teaching and learning Course
- ▶ 02 hours on Single Engine aircraft pre-entry assessment flight
- ▶ 25 hours on Single Engine aircraft (Dual flight instruction)
- ▶ 05 hours on Single Engine aircraft (Mutual flying)
- ▶ 01 hour skill test on Single Engine aircraft (examiners fees included)
- ▶ License issuance

3. Duration (Flight & Theoretical Knowledge Ground Training)

The total duration of the course for an average trainee, guaranteed by the organization, is 2 months of which:

- ▶ 20 days for the Theoretical Instruction Course
- ▶ 05 days for the Teaching and learning Course
- ▶ 20 working days for the flight training

4. Price and Payment Method

The total cost of training for the FI Course package as described above, is twelve thousand and five hundred Euros (12,500 €). The amount can be paid as follows:

- Upon registration the amount of 6.500 Euro
- Before flight training the amount of 6.000 Euro

www.faspilotacademy.aero